

ONLINE COURSE 8 February - 19 March 2027

HEALTH PROFESSIONS: KEY IDEAS FOR TEACHERS AND TRAINERS™

Join an international community of experienced teachers and those new to teaching for this six-week journey.

The curriculum framework

Interesting
the learner

Committing
the learner

Facilitating learning

Futureproofing
the learner

Assessing
the learner

For details please see

<https://amse-med.eu/courses/hp-kitt/>

Why join the HP-KITT Course?

- Learn from international experts
- Explore current developments in education
- Reflect on your teaching practice
- Learn flexibly
- Gain a Course Certificate
- Receive an e-copy of Creating a Curriculum for Student Engagement

Course Faculty

Ronald M Harden

Professor (Emeritus) Medical Education, University of Dundee, UK; Formerly Editor-in-Chief - Medical Teacher

Jeni Harden

Professor of Social Sciences in Medicine, University of Edinburgh, UK; Director of Quality, Edinburgh Medical School and Director of Education, Usher Institute

Marwa Schumann

Team Lead of Faculty Development, Dieter Scheffner Center for Medical Education and Educational Research, Charité Universitätsmedizin-Berlin, Germany

Pat Lilley

Education Consultant and Course Administrator

Interested in joining our international community?

The Course is open to teachers in any health profession. Special rates are available for AMSE members and participants from LMICs*. We also welcome health professions students who would like to develop their education skills.

Course fees

Standard rate:	Eur 450
AMSE member:	Eur 400
LMIC*:	Eur 300
AMSE member LMIC*:	Eur 250
Student:	Eur 195

*Low/Middle Income Countries

For more details about this course,
future courses
and how to register:

<https://amse-med.eu/courses/hp-kitt/>
Email: HP-KITT-Course@amse-med.eu